

Literacy

Mrs Osborne's Literacy -

Write about what you did over your Christmas holidays / at the weekend or write a thank you letter to someone.

Remember to use capital letters, finger spaces and full stops.

Mrs DeWolf's Literacy -

Write about what you did over your Christmas holidays/ at the weekend or write a thank you letter to someone.

Remember to use a range of exciting vocabulary and extended punctuation.

Numeracy

Mrs DeWolf's Numeracy -

Show me that you understand how to halve different shapes / objects and numbers.

Mrs Osborne's Numeracy-

Show me that you understand how to halve and quarter different shapes / objects and numbers.

*Remember to show this using methods like division sums or fractions.

Don't forget to keep playing games on education city.
We love to track what you have played!

My Homework

Due in on Tuesday 24th January 2012

Topic

Collect pictures and objects that belongs to your grandparents and parents and discuss their lives with them.

Make an archaeological shoebox showing the evidence you have collected about yourself, your parents and your grandparents.

Lay the items in a shoebox with your grandparents items on the bottom layer, then your parents then your own.

Take a picture or draw a picture of this shoebox to go in your homework book.

(please do not bring in shoeboxes as we do not want to be responsible for valuable items going missing!)

Spellings

Year 1 - See weekly spelling books for key word spellings.

Year 2 - See spellings books for weekly spellings.

SPELLINGS TO BE TESTED ON MONDAYS
(please ensure books are in school everyday)